Elizabeth Rose to Open at 9/11 September Concert

NEW YORK, September 2, 2005 – The Sidewalk Café (94 Avenue A, New York, NY 10009) will be hosting the annual September Concert on Sunday, September 11, 2005 from 7:00PM until Midnight. Elizabeth Rose will open the concert, performing 4 solo songs from her new album Sleep Naked. Admission is free and all are welcome.

The event coordinator, "The September Concert Foundation, was created in April, 2002 for the sole purpose of organizing an annual citywide music festival in New York, in remembrance of September 11th and a celebration of our universal humanity." The concert's goal is to "turn this day into a day of sounds of music, acts of love, and wishes for peace," and is now a multi-city event. Other performers in the extensive lineup include performing songwriters Matt Mead and Pete Tufel.

Rose is a New York musical performer, with TV, film and stage credits. Sleep Naked, her first full length studio CD, is currently available in select stores and through her website www.elizabethrosemusic.com. "The 12-song collection Sleep Naked is a journal of emotions, well wrought and insightfully captured. Aided by tight arrangements and a cracking supporting ensemble, Elizabeth Rose's bluesy, soulful approach has a touch of Bonnie Raitt, but with the insouciant funk of Rickie Lee Jones and the lyrical sophistication of Cole Porter." (Jon Chappell, author, "Rock Guitar for Dummies"). Produced by Shinya Miyamoto, the album also features a "cadre of veteran musicians" who have played with the likes of Billy Joel, Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, Stevie Wonder, Barbra Streisand, Frank Sinatra and the Harlem Gospel Choir. Rose donates a portion of her CD proceeds to help fund music in schools.
