Press Release

Sleep Naked In Stores Soon

NEW YORK, May 17, 2005 – Elizabeth Rose, "...a wicked-smart contemporary singer/songwriter..." (Jon Chappell, author, "Rock Guitar for Dummies"), is set to release her debut album, Sleep Naked, on June 17. The album will be available at select retailers and available online at www.elizabethrosemusic.com.

Most recently featured on the AI Franken Show on Air America radio and the Stanley Tucci feature film, "Sex & The Other Man", Elizabeth Rose is an artist with TV, film and stage credits and a musical pedigree that spans several generations as well as virtually every style of music. As a youngster she watched her uncle conduct bands on national TV and her cousin play in Broadway pit orchestras. "Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners were prepared around Broadway and TV schedules, when we were kids," Rose remembers. The family home in Queens was a center for rock bands, madrigal singing and chamber music groups. Her brother became a session guitarist, gracing many hit records. Her mother did comedy on the David Letterman Show.

With a catalogue of nearly 100 original songs, Rose's solo project kept being pushed aside as she toured with the Broadway "Beatlemania" cast, did musical character work for the cartoon "Kablam!" on Nickeloden, wrote for the PBS children's show "Animal Tales, composed and performed the theme song for "Women of the World" - a Discovery Channel pilot. She also sang, acted and played guitar for "Housewives on Prozac", the Mommapaloza musical comedy featured on CBS Sunday Morning in May 2005. As a producer, Rose worked on singer/songwriter Deborah Gibson's catalog.

Now Rose's first full length studio CD hits the racks. "The 12-song collection Sleep Naked is a journal of emotions, well wrought and insightfully captured. Aided by tight arrangements and a cracking supporting ensemble, Elizabeth Rose's bluesy, soulful approach has a touch of Bonnie Raitt, but with the insouciant funk of Rickie Lee Jones and the lyrical sophistication of Cole Porter." (Jon Chappell, author, "Rock Guitar for Dummies"). Produced by Shinya Miyamoto, the album also features a "cadre of veteran musicians" who have played with the likes of Billy Joel, Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, Stevie Wonder, Barbra Streisand, Frank Sinatra and the Harlem Gospel Choir.
